

5-12-04

Thayer United Methodist Church quilt give-away

Marge Osborne (right), President of the Thayer United Methodist Church Woman's Club, and her daughter Dianna Still of Plainview show off the quilt that was given away during the Mother-Daughter banquet May 5. Dianna made the quilt and donated it to the church so it could be used to raise monies for the building fund. Bridgett Painter of Morrisonville was the name drawn on the winning ticket. In all, about 90 area ladies attended the church's mother-daughter banquet.

Thayer Methodist Church mother-daughter banquet

Christine Pierce (left), Marylyn Park, Martha Sabo, and Bobbie Trojack were among those competing at the Thayer United Methodist Church Mother-Daughter Banquet with some rather distinctive hats. Christine and Bobbie won a prize along with Dianna Still.